Born in Costa Rica, Mauricio moved to the United States in 2005. After graduating from college, Mauricio taught Spanish and English at Lomira High School in Wisconsin. In addition to teaching in the classroom, Mauricio managed their varsity soccer program.

In 2014, using his love of educating and guiding others, he joined the industry and began his career with Northwestern Mutual. After three years, Mauricio joined Thrivent to help others live lives full of meaning and gratitude.

Mauricio is currently working towards his MBA. He lives with his wife, Andelys, his two children, Luca and Gael, and his two cats, Gigi and Mila. Outside work, Mauricio enjoys managing at Oshkosh United Soccer Youth Club and plays on several competitive soccer teams.
