

INDONESIA

Why we build: As of 2023, an estimated 36.8% of families in Indonesia still occupy uninhabitable houses. People also face poor sanitation and unclean water, and health problems, especially for mothers and babies.

Project description: Volunteers will assist selected families build new 28m<sup>2</sup> permanent houses with private bedroom and toilet. Typical volunteer tasks will include: digging and setting foundation, bending and wiring rebar, mixing cement or concrete, laying bricks and building walls.

Batam

What to expect:

If arriving through Singapore, volunteers arrive at Batam Centre or Harbour Bay International Ferry Terminal. If flying direct, volunteers arrive at Hang Nadim International airport from Soekarno-Hatta International Airport and are taken to their local hotel for the week. During a week build, teams travel 30 minutes each weekday to the worksite.

Yogyakarta

What to expect:

Volunteers arrive at Yogyakarta International Airport, Hotel accommodations and transportation will be provided for the week long build-schedule. It takes 75 minutes to go to the build site. A Social Learning Exchange Activity will be done with the community members with various activities, such as learning and discussion with PASSA Group or supporting local enterprise.

Tangerang

What to expect:

Volunteers will arrive at Soekarno-Hatta International Airport. Hotel accommodations and transportation will be provided for the week long build-schedule. It takes 60 minutes to go to build site.

Karawang

What to expect:

Volunteers will arrive at Soekarno-Hatta International Airport with 2 hours travel time. Hotel accommodations and transportation will be provided for the weeklong build-schedule. It takes 30 minutes to go to build site.

Cilegon

What to expect:

Volunteers will arrive at Soekarno-Hatta International Airport with travel time 100 minutes in total, Hotel accommodations and transportation will be provided during the build-schedule. It takes 30 minutes to go to build site.