Section 5 - Agreements and Signatures

I authorize the liquidation or transfer of in-kind assets noted in Section 3 that your company holds for me.

I agree to the Disclosures at the end of this form and any other disclosures contained in this form.

Signature of owner       X	Date signed
Signature of joint owner/trustee       X	Date signed

Your resigning trustee or custodian may require your signature to be guaranteed. Call that institution for requirements.

A medallion signature guarantee is not the same as a notarized signature. You must obtain a medallion signature guarantee from a commercial bank, trust company, savings association, credit union, or a registered broker/dealer that participates in the medallion signature guarantee program. The guarantee must state the words "Medallion Signature Gurantee Stamp."

Sales of nonqualified assets may be a taxable event. Thrivent Funds recommends that you consult with a professional tax advisor regarding any questions concerning distributions from your nonqualified accounts.

Cost Basis Information

If your transaction will open a new fund, and you have not previously informed us of an election method that can be applied to new funds, the default method of Average Cost will be placed on the new fund.

Thrivent Funds cannot offer tax advice. You should consult with a qualified tax advisor to determine the method that makes the most sense for you, or if you have tax questions regarding your account.
