Notification for Federal and State Income Tax Withholding on IRA or 403(b)

You are liable for federal and state income tax, where applicable, on the taxable portion of your distribution even if you elect no withholding. Except where prohibited by federal and/or state law, you can elect: 1) no withholding; 2) withholding at the minimum federal and state rates; or 3) withholding at a rate higher than the minimum rates. You may be subject to tax penalties under the estimated tax payment rules if your payments of estimated tax and withholding, if any, are not adequate. Check with your tax advisor to determine if withholding is necessary.

Non-Retirement Distributions - We will not withhold for federal or state taxes from distributions on these account types.

Roth Distributions - Unless otherwise indicated on this form, we will not automatically withhold for distributions from a Roth IRA.

Mandatory Tax - Distributions from a 403(b) or qualified retirement plan that are eligible for rollover and are not directly rolled over are subject to mandatory 20% federal tax withholding. Refer to the 403(b) and Qualified Plan Distribution Disclosure (9972) for more information. If your distribution is subject to mandatory 20% federal tax withholding, your distribution may also be subject to mandatory state tax withholding.

We are unable to withhold for federal and state taxes - By electing to have your dividends and/or capital gains distributed, you are electing no withholding. Some states will require state withholding even if you elect no withholding.

If you wish to elect withholding, request to have your dividends and capital gains reinvested and establish a systematic distribution.
