Section 3 - Withdrawal Information

Any redemptions that occur over a weekend or non-business day will be processed using the following business day's share price.

Minimum account balance of $5,000 is required to start a systematic withdrawal plan.

If the bank information is not approved prior to the initial withdrawal date, a check will be sent to you in the mail.

Cost Basis Method Applied to the Systematic Withdrawal Plan Transaction(s): Complete the Proceeds From Broker and Barter Exchange Transactions (IRS Form 1099-B) for reportable accounts. The existing cost basis method on your account at the time of each redemption will be used to calculate cost basis information. For accounts subject to cost basis reporting, the cost basis method elected for your account will be used for all systematic withdrawal plan transactions. You cannot change the cost basis method used after the redemption exchange has been processed.

Section 4 - Financial Institution Account Information for Direct Deposit

Authorization to Financial Institution - I authorize Thrivent Financial Investor Services Inc. to: 1) make electronic deposits, withdrawals and corrections to my bank account that comply with U.S. law; 2) act on this authorization until I revoke it by contacting Thrivent Mutual Funds; 3) apply this authorization to any future bank accounts I may designate; 4) make administrative changes to this authorization which I request such as date or amount changes; and 5) release any and all information related to this authorization to the third party account/contract owner.

I fully acknowledge and understand that:

- The withdrawal from my mutual fund may occur approximately 10 days before the payment due date.
 - The payments to the recipient contract are withdrawals from my mutual fund or settlement option/immediate annuity contract.
 - The withdrawals will automatically increase or decrease based upon changes to the amount billed for the recipient contract and will reduce and possibly deplete the value of my mutual fund account. Subject to availability.

Section 6 - Federal and State Income Tax Withholding

The withdrawals may result in reporting taxable gain to me even though the withdrawals will be applied to another Thrivent Financial contract. I also understand that any withdrawal and reporting of any taxable gain cannot be reversed. This taxable gain will be subject to federal and state income tax withholding unless I have completed Notification for Federal and State Income Tax Withholding. Each withdrawal amount will be increased by the applicable withholding. Cancellation of other Thrivent Financial products will not negate the settlement option/immediate annuity agreement.

Non-Retirement Distributions - We will not withhold for federal or state taxes from distributions on these account types.

Roth Distributions - Unless otherwise indicated on this form, we will not automatically withhold for distributions from a Roth IRA.

Section 8 - Validation

For your protection, validation of your identity is requested.
