

Beneficiary Changes

In every stage of your life, you'll face blessings and challenges that affect your financial priorities and needs. It is important to periodically review your insurance and annuity beneficiary designations so the proceeds are paid according to your wishes upon your death.

What You Can Do Online

This online tool helps you designate commonly requested beneficiary designations. Using this online tool, you can name the following:

- Name an individual
- Name a trust

For assistance with any other beneficiary designation, please contact our office, your financial representative, or download a Beneficiary Designation 307B form (PDF, 1.25MB) to complete and return to Thrivent.

Getting Started

One or more primary beneficiaries must be named to receive the proceeds of the insurance or annuity contract upon your death. You may also name contingent beneficiary(ies). The designation you submit via this tool will completely replace your current designation and must contain all desired primary and contingent beneficiaries.

Before You Begin

When your current beneficiary is available for viewing online, you may choose to print a copy for your reference. To change your beneficiary designation, be prepared with the following information for the beneficiaries you wish to name:

To name an individual:

- The full name (First Name, Middle Initial, Last Name) of each individual
- The relationship of each individual to the insured/annuitant
- The address for each individual*
- The Social Security Number of each individual*

Address and Social Security Number are not required, but are extremely helpful in assisting Thrivent to find the beneficiary at the time of a claim.*

To name a trust:

- The exact full name of the trust
- The date the trust was established
