

Jill Louis

Board Member

With her deep professional expertise and her passion for service and community, Jill Louis' insights will guide the board as Thrivent continues to transform and fulfill its promise to clients, helping them achieve financial clarity, enabling lives full of meaning and gratitude.

Louis is managing partner at Perkins Coie in Dallas, Texas. She was previously general counsel for a large private equity portfolio company and has spent her career working in both private practice and corporate law.

Outside of work, Louis is actively engaged in her church and community, including serving on the Board of Trustees of Howard University and on the executive committees of the AT&T Performing Arts Center and North Texas Public Broadcasting, Inc.

She previously served as a regional board member for the Thrivent Member Network–Texas Region since October 2017, where she was recognized for her dedication and commitment to advancing Thrivent's mission in the region.

Louis has a bachelor's degree from Howard University and a Juris Doctor from Harvard Law School. She and her family reside in Dallas.

About Thrivent

For over 100 years, Thrivent has been helping people build their financial futures and live more generous lives. Today, it's a Fortune 500 diversified financial services organization committed to providing advice, investments, insurance, banking and generosity programs and solutions to help people make the most of all they've been given.

For the last decade, Thrivent has been named one of the World's Most Ethical Companies® by the Ethisphere Institute. As of Dec. 31, 2020, Thrivent had $162 billion in assets under management and advisement.