

Kathryn V. Marinello

Kathryn Marinello was appointed to the Thrivent Board of Directors in August 2014. She chairs the Human Resource committee and serves as a member of the Finance and Executive committees.

Marinello is the president and chief executive officer for Hertz Global in Estero, Florida. Prior to joining Hertz, she served as senior advisor for Ares Management. She previously served as chairman, president and CEO of Stream Global Services Inc. In addition, she has held management positions at Citigroup, Chemical Bank New York (now JPMorgan Chase & Co.), First Bank Systems and First Data Corp. She previously was a division president of General Electric Financial Assurance Partnership, and marketing and division president for General Electric Fleet Services. She also was president, CEO and chairman of Ceridian.

Marinello earned an MBA from Hofstra University in Hempstead, New York, and a bachelor's degree from the State University of New York at Albany. She now serves on the boards of Hertz Global and AB Volvo and has been actively involved in numerous industry associations, including the Business Roundtable and the Wall Street CEO Council.

Marinello is a former resident of Apple Valley, Minnesota, where she raised three sons with her husband, Paul, and was a member of the Shepherd of the Valley Lutheran Church. She currently resides in Bonita Springs, Florida.