

Bradford N. Creswell

Board Member

Bradford (Brad) Creswell has been a member of the Thrivent Board of Directors since February 2018. He serves on the Investment and Strategy committees.

His deep experience in finance, investments and business helps ensure that Thrivent remains strong and stable and can deliver on its promise to help people achieve financial clarity, so they can make the most of all they've been given.

Creswell is co-founder and managing partner of NCA Partners LLC, a private equity firm in Seattle, Washington. Prior to joining NCA, Creswell was vice president at Bankers Trust & Company. He started his career in the audit department of Arthur Young, where he earned his CPA.

Creswell currently serves on the boards of two privately held portfolio companies: PTW Energy Services Ltd. and Doolittle Construction, LLC. He and his wife founded a 501(c)(3), called Mercer Island Launch Educational Advocacy Project (MILEAP), where Creswell currently serves as director and treasurer. In addition, he is director and chair of the Finance Committee for the Reading Partners national board. Creswell was previously on the regional board of the Thrivent Member Network–Northwest Region. Creswell is also an NACD-certified director.

Creswell earned a bachelor's degree from the University of Puget Sound and a master's in business administration from the Amos Tuck School of Business at Dartmouth College.

He and his wife, Stephanie, live in Mercer Island, Washington, and attend Mercer Island Presbyterian Church.
