

Alice M. Richter

Alice Richter of Prior Lake, Minnesota, has been a member of the Thrivent Financial Board of Directors since May 2007. She chairs the Audit Committee and serves as a member of the Executive and Thrivent Holdings Committees.

Richter, a retired CPA, spent her entire career with KPMG. She joined the firm's Minneapolis office in 1975 and later spent three years on an international assignment in Dusseldorf, Germany. She was admitted to the KPMG partnership in 1987.

Prior to her retirement in 2001, Richter held the position of National Industry Director of KPMG's U.S. Food and Beverage Practice. In that role, she provided overall leadership of auditing, tax and consulting services for the firm's major food and beverage clients.

Richter, who earned a bachelor's degree from Minnesota State University-Moorhead, has served on the boards of publicly traded companies as well as several nonprofit organizations, including BestPrep and the Boys and Girls Club of the Twin Cities. She has also been a mentor to women in middle management positions through the Mentium 100 Program and was named a National Association of Corporate Directors Board Leadership fellow.

She attends Peace Lutheran Church in Bloomington, Minnesota.
