Greetings from Covenant Financial Group

Welcome to our spring newsletter! We are delighted to share the latest developments and highlights from Covenant Financial Group.

Covenant Financial Group has grown significantly in the past couple of years, adding clients and staff as we expand in local markets to help more people achieve financial clarity and confidence. Whether you're just starting out, nearing retirement or already retired, our experienced team is here to help you manage your lifestyle, investment, protection and philanthropic needs.

Thrivent's generosity resources

Thrivent offers a variety of ways that you and your family members can make the most of all you've been given and amplify your impact on causes you care about.

Thrivent Action Teams gather your family and make an impact in your community.

Get inspired to lead a Thrivent Action Team.

Thrivent Choice®: Eligible clients can direct Choice Dollars® to qualifying churches, causes and organizations. You can use Thrivent's online giving platform to donate to an organization enrolled in Thrivent Choice.

Disaster response: When your family wants to support people affected by a natural disaster, you can join Thrivent's coordinated efforts.

Donor-advised fund (DAF): A DAF offers flexibility that enables you to give to the organizations that are closest to your heart. Create a personalized plan through Thrivent Charitable Impact and Investing®.

Team Q&A: Get to know us

Q. If our team had a mascot, what would it be and why?

Joel Groskreutz, RICP[®],

I would choose a bison. A bison is strong yet calm and determined in any situation. When faced with extreme weather such as a winter blizzard, it faces directly into the storm and waits it out. In our industry, we have ups and downs and need to face adversity/uncertainty head on and wait for the situation to improve. We remain calm but committed to our clients.

The Covenant shepherd dog. Watchful, steady and protective while helping others move forward safely.

Black squirrel because they are not very common outside of Reedsburg that I know of.

Carrie Stando
Operations Manager

“Thrive” the barn owl. Owls represent wisdom and “financial clarity” and are a watchful guardian over a household’s legacy.

A camel. Camels are often described as resourceful animals, known for their ability to conserve resources. Their skeptical nature requires them to thoroughly examine situations before making decisions. Camels are emotionally intelligent, wise and independent with a strong sense of responsibility, making them fascinating companions and working animals.

If we had a team mascot, it would be a tree! (Hear me out—it would be a pretty and long-living tree.) We are deeply rooted in our faith together as a team. We grow with each other and our clients through their financial journey and life, as a tree gets taller and stronger through its life. Our clients become family to us, and we grow with them and are here in their time of need to guide and serve.

Covenant Financial Group lion. Lions represent strength and leadership. Our team is made up of great leaders and together we make an incredibly strong team who do what’s right for our clients, ensuring that they feel strong in the decisions that they make for their financial future.

Coordinator

My mascot nomination is ants, because they are small but mighty and very hardworking—always busy! They also show strong teamwork and good division of labor.

Winter event round-up

We've enjoyed hosting some great events this winter. In February, we hosted a family friendly, private movie showing of "I Can Only Imagine 2" at Desert Star Cinema, where more than 125 people attended. This was such a fun event, and we thank you for coming to enjoy the movie with us. We also hosted some workshops and watch parties. At all these events, we've enjoyed seeing our current clients and meeting new faces.

Lemon ricotta pancakes

Our very own Lauren has made these pancakes and raved about how wonderful they are. We hope to try them out too! These pancakes are melt-in-your-mouth soft and tender; they're perfectly fluffy and you'll love that bit of brightness and tang from the lemon. These are the perfect pancakes for spring or summer, and they're likely to become a new family favorite.

Ingredients

- 1 ½ cups (214g) all-purpose flour (scoop and level to measure)
- 3 ½ Tbsp (46g) granulated sugar
- 2 tsp baking powder
- ¼ tsp baking soda
- ½ tsp salt
- 1 cup (236ml) milk
- ¾ cup (180g) ricotta (low-fat or whole)
- 3 large eggs
- 1 tsp vanilla extract
- 1-2 Tbsp lemon zest (depending on how lemony you want them)
- ¼ cup (60ml) fresh lemon juice
- 1 Tbsp (14g) butter, melted

Instructions

1. Preheat an electric griddle to moderately high heat (or use a nonstick skillet set over medium heat).
2. In a mixing bowl, whisk together flour, granulated sugar, baking powder, baking soda and salt for 20 seconds.
3. Make a well in center of flour mixture and set aside.
4. In a separate large mixing bowl, whisk together milk, ricotta, eggs and vanilla until well blended.
5. Add butter, lemon zest and lemon juice to milk mixture and blend until combined (it will curdle a little, that's fine).
6. Immediately pour milk mixture into flour mixture and whisk just to combined (batter should be slightly lumpy).
7. Pour 1/3 cup batter onto buttered griddle or skillet and cook until bubbles begin to appear on surface and bottom is golden brown, then flip and cook opposite side until golden brown.
8. Serve warm dusted with powdered sugar if desired and drizzled with maple or berry syrup.

Tax-efficient strategies and their impact on your financial goals

It's never too early or too late to begin considering your tax diversification options. Creating a strategy now can help you position the money you're saving—or already have saved—to be more income-tax-efficient and potentially increase your total spendable income.

It's important to discuss implementing tax-savvy strategies that could help reduce what you pay now and in retirement.

Read this article for additional details, and then let's talk about your unique situation.

Final thoughts, from Joel

Spring is here and it's the perfect time to plant the seeds of your financial future. A little planning now can help your money bloom all year long. All of us at Covenant Financial Group look forward to a year of growth and service to you and our community.

Thank you for trusting us and allowing us to be a partner in your financial journey.
