Interview with Financial Advisor Matt Huether

Matt has been with Thrivent since April 2008 and has a passion for helping clients that is surpassed only by his passion for his family and sports. Matt has a relationship-first, business-second mindset, which is evident when you meet with him. He values the life-long relationships he builds with clients as they work together to protect their families and invest in their future.

Q&A

What's your best childhood memory?

My family road trips in the minivan to Denver to attend Rockies and Broncos games. My dad would take out the middle seats in our van and lay out a mattress for the kids to play Nintendo.

What's on your bucket list?

Attending the Master's Golf Tournament in Augusta, Georgia.

What was your first job?

I worked for my two mentors in business—my father and Cal Fuss, by working in the warehouse for a wholesale beauty supply business.

What are your hobbies?

I enjoy golfing, hunting and fishing. Lately, the most rewarding hobbies are coaching my son, Ethan, in baseball, basketball and golf, and watching my daughter, Erin, in volleyball, basketball and swimming.

Create a charitable giving plan with tax-smart benefits

Charitable giving can help you gain a greater sense of gratitude for what you've earned. Giving generously to your family, community and society can also be a key part of a tax-efficient financial strategy.

Giving back provides personal satisfaction, helps make the world a better place, shows your gratitude, and shares your values. Read this article to learn more about purposeful giving, and then let's talk about how you can integrate giving with your financial goals.

Thrivent Action Teams

We're here to help you make a difference and a positive impact in your community through a Thrivent Action Team. Simply gather a team of friends, family or neighbors to put on a fundraiser, educational event or service activity. We'll provide the resources you need to get started—including up to $250 in seed money. Here are some great summer ideas members have implemented:

- Purchase sports supplies and shoes for underprivileged kids, so they can participate in summer sporting events.
- Fire up the grill and start an annual drive-through dinner to support an organization.
- VBS block party. For food and supplies to promote vacation Bible school (VBS).
- Serve a picnic meal for congregation and community.
- Host mother/daughter tea for seniors: Provide tea, coffee, soda, appetizers. Decorate with fresh flowers and offer door prizes.
