This guide describes the costs and compensation associated with products and services available through Thrivent ("Thrivent Financial for Lutherans") and its affiliates. Thrivent is a fraternal benefit society that issues Thrivent fixed and variable life insurance, health insurance, variable annuity, fixed indexed annuity, and fixed-rate annuity contracts. It also serves as the investment adviser for each of the Thrivent Series Fund, Inc., portfolios that are available in Thrivent variable products. Thrivent’s affiliates include:

- Thrivent Investment Management Inc., which offers broker-dealer products, investment advisory services, and provides principal underwriting and distribution services for Thrivent variable annuities and variable life insurance products.
- Thrivent Trust Company, which offers professional personal trust, estate and investment management services.
- Thrivent Advisor Network, LLC, which provides investment advisory services and is a licensed insurance agency.
- Thrivent Asset Management, LLC, which provides investment management and administrative services for Thrivent Mutual Funds.
- Thrivent Distributors, LLC, which provides principal underwriting and distribution services for Thrivent Mutual Funds.
- Thrivent Financial Investor Services Inc., which provides transfer agent and shareholder services for Thrivent Mutual Funds, Series Funds, Core Funds and Cash Management Trust.
- Thrivent Insurance Agency, Inc., which assists certain financial professionals with the sale of insurance products and is a licensed insurance agency.

This guide provides information about how Thrivent and its affiliates, financial professionals and certain personnel who offer the products and services described in this guide are compensated for the sale of products and services. While this guide also provides information about fees, costs and expenses, you can always find details about specific fees and charges in the documentation you have for your specific product or service.

Generally, Thrivent and its affiliates are paid for the sale of products and services from various sources, including:

- Fees you pay for the purchase, sale and management of products, services, contracts and policies.
- Fees you pay for our investment advisory services.
- Fees other companies pay us to offer their products.
- Revenue-sharing agreements with certain mutual fund families and insurance companies.
- Investment and interest income.

Thrivent offers a range of products and services designed to help you meet your financial goals and needs. However, this range is limited to who we have selling agreements with, the availability of certain securities from our clearing firm, and other limitations we may impose based on our due diligence process. Products and services Thrivent financial professionals ("Financial Professionals") can offer depend on the insurance licenses and securities registrations they hold and those to which we have granted them to offer. This means your Financial Professional may not be able to offer all products and services described in this guide. Your Financial Professional can tell you which products and services he or she can or cannot offer.

Certain Thrivent financial professionals offer and receive compensation for the sale of nonproprietary life insurance contracts (commission as a percentage of premium or a fee based on the amount of the assets managed under the product sold). The fees, costs, and expenses you pay for nonproprietary life insurance contracts may vary. Review the contract and offering documents from the issuing company for more information about what you pay.

Guarantees are backed by the financial strength and claims-paying ability of Thrivent. Loans and surrenders will decrease the death proceeds and the value available to pay insurance costs and may cause the contract to terminate without value. Surrenders may generate an income tax liability, and charges may apply. A significant taxable event can occur if a contract terminates with outstanding debt. Contact your tax advisor for further details. Loaned values may accumulate at a lower rate than unloaned values.

• The overall level of a Financial Professional’s production may also impact the compensation paid. |

A mutual fund (“fund”) is an investment vehicle consisting of a pool of money that is managed by an investment adviser, which could include an affiliate or a non-affiliated third party. Investment advisers may use various techniques to evaluate the securities comprising the fund and they have discretion to purchase and sell the underlying securities without consulting you. As the investor of a mutual fund, you purchase shares of the fund, you do not actually own the underlying securities and the value of your shares rise or fall as the value of the securities in the fund rise and fall. Fund shares can be held in a brokerage account, an investment advisory account, or directly with the mutual fund company.

<td>Variable annuity contracts</td>
<td>A portion of the premium and product costs you pay covers a sales commission paid to us by the issuer. You are subject to certain fees and other expenses. These fees can affect net investment performance, vary between variable annuities, and are described in the variable annuity's prospectus.</td>

A variable annuity is an insurance contract between you and an insurance company that allows you to allocate your premium payments to one or more subaccounts of the variable account, the fixed account, or—if available—the fixed-period allocations.

The accumulated value of a variable annuity fluctuates according to the investment performance of the variable subaccounts and is not guaranteed. Investments in variable subaccounts are subject to risk and may be worth more or less than the amount of the accumulated premium payments. Depending on the death benefit option you select, accumulated value fluctuations may affect the available death benefit.

Variable annuities offer lifetime income options, principal protection features and basic death benefit guarantees. Optional features may be available at an additional cost. Guarantees are backed by the financial strength and claims-paying ability of the issuing insurance company and the investment performance of the subaccounts.

Any growth in accumulated value grows tax deferred. Consult with your Financial Professional for information regarding a variable annuity's tax-deferral benefits and disadvantages. For specific tax advice, consult a tax advisor.

Variable annuities are held directly with the issuing insurance company and not in a brokerage account.

- Surrender charge: A charge assessed if you surrender money from your annuity contract during the surrender period. Each year, you can take out a certain amount of money without incurring this charge.
- Other expenses: (e.g., portfolio expenses, mortality and expense risk fees, contract administrative charges and fees for optional benefits and riders.)

The Accumulation Unit Value for each subaccount reflects payment of fees, charges and expenses related to the underlying portfolio, which will affect net investment performance.

Description

Thrivent Income-Focused Managed Portfolios™
A discretionary investment advisory program in which an affiliated Model Provider, Thrivent Asset Management, LLC, constructs and maintains the model ETF portfolios and you grant a non-affiliated third party with the ability to implement investment transactions (i.e., periodic updates and rebalance the assets) without your needing to approve each transaction.

The Income-Focused portfolios consist of two different series that invest primarily in nonproprietary no-load and load-waived mutual funds, closed-end funds, and ETFs, as well as Thrivent Mutual Funds, that seek to produce dividends or interest income. The portfolios either seek to provide an income stream or will reinvest dividends and any interest income earned, while managing volatility through various investment strategies.

Thrivent Genesis Managed Portfolios™
A discretionary investment advisory program in which a non-affiliated Model Provider, BlackRock Investment Management, LLC, constructs and maintains the model ETF portfolios and you grant a non-affiliated third party with the ability to implement investment transactions (i.e., periodic updates and rebalance the assets) without your needing to approve each transaction.

The Genesis portfolios consist of BlackRock ETFs and provide exposure to U.S. and international stocks and global fixed income.

Thrivent Shepherd Managed Portfolios®
A discretionary investment advisory program in which a non-affiliated Model Provider, Vanguard Investment Strategy Group, constructs and maintains the model ETF portfolios and you grant a non-affiliated third party with the ability to implement investment transactions (i.e., periodic updates and rebalance the assets) without your needing to approve each transaction.

The Shepherd portfolios consist of Vanguard ETFs and provide exposure to U.S. and international stocks and global investment-grade bonds.

Proprietary Products, Membership and Charitable Activities

Thrivent is owned by our membership. Offering Thrivent products is part of the fraternal charter and state and federal laws under which we exist. If you own a membership-eligible product (e.g., proprietary life insurance, health insurance or annuity product), apply and are eligible for membership, then you are a Thrivent client with membership and part of a not-for-profit fraternal benefit society. As a result, we have an incentive to recommend membership-eligible products, which creates a conflict of interest. We manage this conflict by training our Financial Professionals on their responsibility owed to you and through our policies and procedures. Although our Financial Professionals recommend products and services they determine are suitable and based on your particular financial situation, you should carefully evaluate each product and recommendation.

In addition, Thrivent and its affiliates may share certain supervised and management persons.

Here are a few facts about Thrivent and fraternal benefit societies in general:

- Thrivent has certain tax exemptions. What we would otherwise pay in taxes from the success of our products helps fuel our charitable and community programs.\(^5\)
- We have our own dispute resolution program, which helps to resolve differences quickly, fairly and at minimal cost to the clients with membership. Your participation in the program is optional in connection with products and services offered by Thrivent Investment Management Inc.
- Unlike commercial insurers, Thrivent, as a fraternal benefit society, is not in the state insurance guaranty associations. This means that Thrivent cannot be assessed for the insolvency of other life insurers. By law, Thrivent is responsible for its own solvency. Like other fraternal benefit societies, if Thrivent’s reserves were to become impaired, the certificate (policy) holders may be assessed a proportionate share of the impairment, but any values in subaccounts where the certificate (policy) holders bear investment risk will not be assessed.
- Your membership is supported with strength and stability. We earned an A++ (Superior) rating (highest of 13 ratings) from the AM Best insurance rating agency in June 2022. This rating is the agency’s opinion about Thrivent’s ability to meet our obligations to our more than 2 million clients.\(^6\)

Thrivent and Affiliate Compensation

Thrivent and its affiliates pay one another and receive payments from third-party companies when you purchase products from us. A conflict of interest exists because we have an incentive to recommend our products over other companies’ products. Thrivent mitigates these conflicts through its due diligence reviews of the products and services we offer and other supervisory controls.

The receipt of compensation (either directly or indirectly) creates a conflict of interest between us and you. We manage these conflicts through our policies and procedures, conducting due diligence reviews of the products and services that can be recommended, disclosing material conflicts to clients and prospective clients and by training our Financial Professionals.

How do Thrivent and its affiliates earn commissions and other compensation?

- Thrivent and its affiliates issue, underwrite and sell our own products. These are called proprietary products and include variable annuities, variable life insurance products, and mutual funds. When you own these products, Thrivent and its affiliates are paid from fees and/or premiums that are charged to you.
- Thrivent and its affiliates sell certain products from non-affiliated third-party companies (“nonproprietary products”), which include insurance products, mutual funds and other investments. When you own these products, Thrivent and its affiliates are paid fees that are charged to you and/or fees or commissions that we receive from these outside companies.

\(^5\)Thrivent membership activities, such as Thrivent Action Teams, Thrivent and Habitat Partnership, and Thrivent Choice\(^6\), engage Thrivent clients with membership and Thrivent Member Networks in charitable activities, furthering Thrivent’s mission and its purposes under state law. Member benefits and programs are not guaranteed contractual benefits. The interpretation of the provisions of these benefits and programs is at the sole discretion of Thrivent. Membership benefits are reviewed and evaluated regularly. Thrivent reserves the right to change, modify, discontinue, or refuse to provide any of the membership benefits or any part of them, at any time.
You should never purchase or keep insurance or annuity products to be eligible for nonguaranteed membership benefits. You should only purchase and keep insurance and annuity products that best meet the financial security needs of you and your family. Consider the cost, features, and benefits of specific insurance and/or annuity products.

\(^6\)Rating is based on Thrivent’s financial strength and claims-paying ability. Does not apply to investment product performance. For information on this rating, visit the rating agency’s website.
• Certain third-party companies pay Thrivent compensation if Thrivent variable annuities contain variable insurance trusts or funds from those companies.

• Thrivent Asset Management, LLC, receives fees for serving as the investment manager for Thrivent Mutual Funds and for providing administrative and accounting services to the funds pursuant to an administrative services agreement.

• Thrivent Mutual Funds pay Thrivent Financial Investor Services Inc. fees for providing transfer agency and dividend-payment services to shareholders.

• Thrivent Distributors, LLC, retains a portion of the total sales charge and receives 12b-1 fees when you buy Thrivent Mutual Fund Class A shares. In turn, your Financial Professional and Thrivent Investment Management Inc. receive 12b-1 fees from Thrivent Distributors, LLC based on the amount of certain proprietary and nonproprietary mutual funds Thrivent Investment Management Inc.’s clients own. 12b-1 fees cover promotion, distribution and marketing expenses, and sometimes compensation for Financial Professionals.

• Thrivent Investment Management Inc. receives revenue-sharing payments from affiliates and third-party companies based on proprietary and certain nonproprietary mutual funds its clients own. This compensation is based on assets under management and paid by the investment adviser or distributor of the mutual fund out of its own resources. These additional payments compensate Thrivent Investment Management Inc. for distribution, training, educational programs, marketing and sales support services.

• Thrivent Asset Management, LLC may use Thrivent Mutual Funds in model portfolios that in turn are recommended by Thrivent Investment Management Inc. for investment advisory clients. It is more profitable for us if you choose to participate in Thrivent Investment Management Inc.’s Managed Accounts Program and invest into Thrivent Mutual Funds. We manage this conflict by rebating 12b-1 fees for any mutual fund that charges a 12b-1 fee in Thrivent Investment Management Inc.’s Managed Accounts Program. You will receive a credit to your Program Fee in an amount that is at least equal to your pro-rata share of 12b-1 fees and similar marketing fees received.

• When participating in Thrivent Investment Management Inc.’s Managed Accounts Program, your Financial Professional can recommend mutual funds that don’t offer an institutional or other lower cost share class or mutual funds that require you to pay distribution and 12b-1 fees. These fees cover promotion, distribution and marketing expenses, and sometimes compensation for Financial Professionals. A conflict of interest exists because it is more profitable for Thrivent Investment Management Inc. if you choose to invest in the mutual funds that charge you fees. We manage this conflict by rebating 12b-1 fees for any mutual fund that charges a 12b-1 fee in the Thrivent Investment Management Inc.’s Managed Accounts Program. You will receive a credit to your Program Fee in an amount that is at least equal to your pro-rata share of 12b-1 fees and similar marketing fees received.

• Thrivent Investment Management Inc. receives compensation from Thrivent Advisor Network, LLC for soliciting or referring prospective clients to Thrivent Advisor Network for investment advisory services.

• Thrivent Investment Management Inc. receives compensation from Purshe Kaplan Sterling Investments (“PKS”), an unaffiliated registered broker-dealer, for referring certain persons to become registered representatives of PKS. This referral fee is based on revenue derived from sales of the registered representative of PKS. These registered representatives will also be investment advisor representatives of Thrivent Advisor Network, LLC. The referral compensation creates an incentive for investment advisor representatives of Thrivent Advisor Network who also register with PKS to use PKS for brokerage services.

• Thrivent Investment Management Inc. has a contract with National Financial Services, LLC, member NYSE/SIPC, a Fidelity Investments® company, (“NFS”) that provides us incentives to place assets with NFS, as well as disincentives in the form of charges to us if we were to terminate our contract with NFS before the end of the contract term. These contract terms create a conflict of interest for us since we have an incentive to utilize NFS as a clearing firm and custodian for the assets in certain investment advisory programs. We also have an economic interest to also act as the broker-dealer on the execution of securities transactions because of the additional revenue received and an economic incentive to use NFS as our clearing firm for trade execution and custody over other firms that do not or would not provide such economic benefits to us, even if such other firms might be more beneficial to our clients. Accordingly, we have a financial incentive to serve as an introducing broker-dealer and to use NFS for clearing, settlement and custodial services.
• Thrivent Investment Management Inc. may pay an affiliate or a non-affiliated third party a fee for the educational and administrative services provided.

• Thrivent Trust Company may use Thrivent Mutual Funds in model portfolios that in turn are recommended for investment management accounts. This is a conflict, because Thrivent Asset Management, LLC is paid for investment management of Thrivent Mutual Funds used in your account. These fees are in addition to the investment management fee you pay to Thrivent Trust Company for your account.

• Thrivent Insurance Agency, Inc. and Thrivent Investment Management Inc. receive a commission as a percentage of premium based on certain factors that include total volume of our Financial Professional’s product sales, length of time that you continue to pay premiums or keep assets invested in the products sold, and the profitability of the products.

• Thrivent Investment Management Inc. and its Financial Professionals compensate unaffiliated third parties to refer prospective clients to us for investment advisory services. This compensation can consist of cash or non-cash compensation. An example of a non-cash compensation arrangement would be a mutual understanding of a cross-referral relationship between a Financial Professional and an unaffiliated third party such as some other professional service provider. The terms of any such cash or non-cash compensated referral arrangement will be disclosed to the prospective client at the time of the referral.

• It is generally more profitable for us if you purchase certain advisory services that are sponsored and advised by Thrivent Investment Management Inc. and its affiliates, such as Advantage, SELECT, Income-Focused and Impact.
Thrivent Financial Professional Compensation

The amount and type of compensation paid to your Financial Professional varies and depends on, among other things:

- Their relationship with Thrivent and if they have an agreement with Thrivent that makes them eligible for a broader range of compensation.
- The products and/or services recommended to you.
- If you actually purchase or invest in a product or account and the time that you own the product or are otherwise invested with us.
- Total volume of product sales, length of time that you continue to pay premiums or keep assets invested in the products sold, and the profitability of the products.
- If you purchase or invest in a proprietary product versus a nonproprietary product.
- Whether your Financial Professional participates in a team compensation program.

In addition to the commissions and fees already described, your Financial Professional may receive other compensation for providing you with recommendations or services. Receipt of compensation (either cash or non-cash compensation) creates conflicts of interest between you and your Financial Professional. We manage these conflicts by training our Financial Professionals and through our policies and supervisory procedures. Your Financial Professional may not receive any or all of the specific types of compensation described in this guide. You can ask your Financial Professional for further details about the actual compensation he or she receives. Below are different forms of compensation your Financial Professional could earn while providing you with recommendations.

How does my Financial Professional earn commissions and other compensation?

- When you invest in securities with us, a portion of the commissions, fees and charges you pay are in turn used to compensate your Financial Professional. In addition, please know that:
  - Financial Professionals, who are not employees, use this compensation to pay for their own business expenses, including office space, equipment and office staff they may employ.
  - Financial Professionals may share this compensation with other Financial Professionals. These fees may be a single payment or ongoing.
  - Based on the commissions they receive, Financial Professionals may receive subsidized retirement and insurance benefits. In lieu of these benefits, Financial Professionals may receive a higher commission.

- Certain Financial Professionals, who are on teams, may be eligible to participate in a team compensation program that allows the team to qualify for a common payout rate. Compensation for the program is based on the total production of the team, including total volume of product sales, length of time that you continue to pay premiums or keep assets invested in the products sold, and the profitability of the products. As a condition of the team compensation program, each team must maintain certain production levels, including an initial threshold and ongoing production requirements, and a team with more than two producing team members will be required to pay back a portion of compensation received based on the number and tenure of producing team members and the team’s gross compensation rates. This program presents a financial incentive to recommend more products or services.

- Compensation may be paid to certain Financial Professionals for training and coaching other Financial Professionals on specific products and services that we offer, and on practice management. A portion of this compensation may be based on incremental sales of these products and services sold by the Financial Professionals receiving the training.

- Financial Professionals may be eligible to receive compensation from Thrivent to support their marketing efforts. This compensation is based in part on the number of the Financial Professionals’ new clients who become part of Thrivent’s membership because they bought a membership-eligible product, retention of assets, and their sales volume of specific products and services.

- Some Financial Professionals may receive a loan from Thrivent to invest in their practices. They may receive partial loan forgiveness if they exceed their expected sales of life and health insurance products.

- Financial Professionals may enter into a loan agreement with a client who is also an immediate family member or a financial institution in the business of providing credit, financing or loans and the terms of the lending arrangement are those that would also be available to the general public doing business with such an institution.
• Thrivent Distributors, LLC, the underwriter and distributor for Thrivent Mutual Funds, pays your Financial Professional for his or her work in bringing donor gifts to Thrivent Charitable Impact & Investing\(^7\) (Thrivent Charitable) to the extent these donor gifts are invested in Thrivent Mutual Funds. This fee does not increase the cost of the product to you.

• Financial Professionals who facilitate gifts to Thrivent Charitable may be eligible to receive non-cash compensation (e.g. public recognition and budget to co-host an event). Receipt of non-cash compensation is based on the specific threshold of gifts facilitated during the year and/or the Financial Professional’s career.

• Thrivent Investment Management Inc. and third-party companies, including but not limited to third parties whom we have existing relationships with (i.e., Platform Manager, Model Providers, etc.) pay for some events during which Financial Professionals learn about products and services offered by Thrivent Investment Management Inc. or its affiliate. Costs include, but are not limited to, training materials, travel, lodging and meals. They also pay for certain educational events for clients or prospective clients. Costs include, but are not limited to, room rental, presentation materials, meals, entertainment/leisure outings and promotional gifts. This results in a conflict of interest because we have an incentive to use certain third-party companies over others based on this arrangement.

• Thrivent Investment Management Inc. and Thivent pay Financial Professionals and field management additional compensation in the form of a cash bonus, sales award or a higher proportion of fees. This additional compensation is based on the sales volume of specific products and services and/or clients who purchased a membership-eligible product.

• Financial Professionals may be eligible to receive noncash compensation (e.g., attend sales conferences and other recognition events). Receipt of non-cash compensation is based on new clients who become members of Thrivent Financial for Lutherans because they purchased a membership-eligible product and/or the amount of “new money” brought into the firm because a client or member purchased certain products and services, including annuities, variable life insurance products, mutual funds, other securities, engaged in dedicated planning services, and/or a Financial Professional refers trust services to a client or member. In addition to the criteria listed above, Financial Professionals who also have a long tenure with Thrivent or its affiliates may also be eligible to participate in special recognition events (e.g., Hall of Fame).

• Financial Professionals who are employees receive a salary and are eligible to earn additional bonus compensation if they meet certain sales or revenue thresholds.

• Certain Financial Professionals are eligible to receive a cash bonus from their team practice based on what is earned by the whole team. This bonus is not taken out of your payments toward your investment.

• Your Financial Professional receives a portion of the commissions, fees and charges that you pay when you invest your transferred or rolled over retirement assets (e.g., employer-sponsored 401(k) plan) with us based on his or her recommendation.

• Thrivent Investment Management Inc. and your Financial Professional may receive a financial benefit by you not paying a reduced fee should you qualify for, but opt out of, householding. However, you may pay a reduced fee due to other factors that is greater than the financial benefit from householding.

• Your Financial Professional may get paid a higher percentage of the Managed Accounts Program fee, depending on the program(s) you select, whether or not you select Dedicated Planning Services as part of a program, and Thrivent’s compensation payout criteria.

• The Advisor and Advisor Guided programs have established parameters for the number of trades that can be executed within an account within a 12-month period at no incremental cost to your Financial Professional. However, your Financial Professional will have to pay the cost of trading (ticket charges) charged by NFS if the level of trade in each of your Advisor and/or Advisor Guided managed accounts exceed the parameters. You do not pay this charge. Since your Financial Professional has to pay charges for executed trades, this creates a conflict of interest because they have an incentive not to make recommendations or execute trades above the parameters (for which they have to pay). Thrivent Investment Management Inc. manages this conflict of interest by training its Financial Professionals on their responsibilities as a fiduciary under the Advisers Act.

• Thrivent Trust Company pays your Financial Professional a fee for referring you to the company for its professional personal trust, estate and investment management services. Thrivent Trust Company will pay ongoing management fees instead of referral fees to a Financial Professional if they provide advisory services to assets. Any such compensation payment will be disclosed to you, when applicable and as required by law, and will not increase your fees. Such payments may be made for the duration of the your accounts held with Thrivent Trust Company.

\(^7\)Thrivent Charitable Impact & Investing\(^7\) is a public charity that serves individuals, organizations and the community through charitable planning, donor-advised funds and endowments. Thrivent Charitable Impact & Investing works collaboratively with Thrivent and its financial advisors. It is a separate legal entity from Thrivent, the marketing name for Thrivent Financial for Lutherans.
• Your Financial Professional may participate in an outside business activity with an entity not affiliated with Thrivent. These activities may occur during normal business hours, including securities trading hours.

• Your Financial Professional may personally hold, or hold in an account where they have a beneficial interest, the same or different securities and/or use investment strategies that differ from those that are recommended to you.

• Field management personnel who supervise and coach Financial Professionals are paid when Financial Professionals sell products. Some Thrivent corporate employees also are paid because they provide related training and support.

• We also pay Financial Professionals on production, including total volume of product sales, length of time that you continue to pay premiums or keep assets invested in the products sold, and the profitability of the products. Therefore, Financial Professionals have an incentive to recommend a product or service with a higher compensation payout.

• If you elect to participate in ongoing Dedicated Planning Services as a standalone service, you will pay a negotiated fee that may be higher or lower than the portion of the fee you would pay through WealthPlan for Dedicated Planning Services.

• A registered professional with Thrivent Investment Management Inc. who refers you to a Financial Professional for the purpose of obtaining the Dedicated Planning Services may share in the Planning Fee for the services provided. This arrangement is only allowed if the registered professional making the referral is appropriately licensed and state-registered. Any payments to the registered professional making a referral will not increase the Planning Fee or any fees associated with accounts, products or services that you buy, sell or hold with Thrivent Investment Management Inc..

• The amount of compensation paid to your Financial Professional may be higher for the sale of nonproprietary insurance and annuity products.
