Portfolio Description

Thrivent Small Cap Growth Portfolio seeks to provide investors with competitive performance through favorable stock selection while monitoring risk. The Portfolio typically invests in small-capitalization "growth" stocks. Growth stocks are companies whose earnings are expected to grow at an above-average rate relative to the market. Small companies may have the opportunity to grow more rapidly than larger companies as they potentially emerge from small- to medium-sized companies. However, they typically do not pay significant dividends to shareholders and instead reinvest earnings back into the company. Smaller companies have greater volatility (or more risk) because they are often less-seasoned, have narrower product lines, less liquidity, lower revenues and fewer resources than larger companies.

Investment Strategy/Process

The portfolio management team seeks to add value through stock selection and active management, and monitors risk in an effort to build a well-diversified portfolio. The team uses fundamental, quantitative, and technical investment research techniques in an effort to identify small companies that could grow revenue and earnings faster than their peers, and that could sustain that growth over time.

Risks: The Portfolio primarily invests in securities of small companies. Smaller, less seasoned companies often have greater price volatility, lower trading volume, and less liquidity than larger, more established companies. Growth style investing involves investing in securities that are historically more volatile than other securities, particularly over the short-term. The value of the Portfolio is influenced by factors impacting the overall market, certain asset classes, certain investment styles, and specific issuers. The Portfolio may incur losses due to investments that do not perform as anticipated by the investment adviser. Common stocks of companies that rely extensively on technology, science or communications in their product development or operations may be more volatile than the overall stock market and may or may not move in tandem with the overall stock market. These and other risks are described in the Portfolio's prospectus.
